

Anime Festival Asia 2009 expects to draw regional fans with top names from Japan confirmed.

Programme packed line-up targets anyone interested in Japanese Popular Culture by offering a wide showcase of the hottest trends from Japan.

(Singapore, October 7th, 2009) – The organisers of Anime Festival Asia 2009 (AFA09) have doubled the excitement level of AFA09 with the announcement of ‘first time out of Japan’ exclusive contents with the Hatsune Miku LIVE! Performance at AFA09’s “I Love Anisong” music concert on Saturday, 21st November, and a LIVE! K-ON Experience with guest appearances from the voice actresses of K-ON! on Sunday, 22nd November. Fans of Japanese popular culture from the region will be the first out of Japan to experience these live acts at AFA09..

“Anime Festival Asia is geared towards bringing together the community to celebrate all things they love, and to provide a platform for the regional and local anime generation to gain direct access to very exclusive content never before available in this part of the world. This is an exciting time for us; as we look to bring new dimensions to the festival this year! !” said Shawn Chin, Executive Festival Director, Anime Festival Asia

Virtual Idol Live Performance at AFA09 “I Love Anisong” Music Concerts

Virtual Idol Hatsune Miku will make her official stage debut outside of Japan, as part of AFA09’s “I Love Anisong” music concerts, where she will be performing live on stage. Created from Crypton Future Media’s voice synthesis software DTM (Desktop Music), Hatsune Miku utilises a speech synthesis system produced by Yamaha called VOCALOID2, which enables the user to create a song by utilizing sounds samples of various annunciations by a real human being. When combined with various available 3D rendering software, like Miku Miku Dance, Miku can then ‘perform’ on a virtual platform. Miku has become a big hit in Japan and around the world; she has even released albums of her covering popular songs and original ones composed by various underground artistes!

2009’s Hottest Japanese Anime Cast Appearance –K-ON! Girls ‘Live’ on Stage

K-ON! is perhaps the hottest anime out of Japan this year. The appearance of the voice cast will be a highly anticipated event at AFA09. The girls will be performing a live dubbing session of a scene from the anime itself. Fans of the show can get to know more about the series during a question and answer session after the dubbing session. Interested fans will have to submit the questions in advance via the AFA09 website.
